Increased faith: That Australian Salvos will recognise our need for Jesus, that we will be dependent on Him for all we need so we might bless the world around us and see God’s hand at work. That we would pray for miracles, change, innovation and a sweep of the Holy Spirit and fully expect to have God happen where we are. 2. Increased love: That our people and our country would feel loved by God, each other and us. That those who are felt left on the fringes are included in every aspect of life, community and leadership. That the voices of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities (our indigenous First Nations people) would influence our decision-making and directions for the future. That love would be expressed in our meeting places, and that all cultures and nationalities would find a place to belong and a language of love to speak within our movement so people might know the transformative grace of God at work in and through us. |
