09/04	Kam Tin Corps Corps Officer : Major Alfred Wong Associate Corps Office : Major Agatha Wong Prayer Requests: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. We are grateful that our Easter activity was a success – the Corps hosted an Open Air Meeting and parent-child cooking competition and we welcomed several Recruits into our family. May God be the glory! 2. The Corps will be celebrating its 66th Anniversary on 14 April. May the Holy Spirit lead all the brothers, sisters, and friends who experienced God’s grace in Kam Tin Corps’ ministry to give thanks to God and praise Him! 3. As we are preparing for this year’s summer activities, may God grant us love and wisdom to inspire different people to join us in serving families in need in our community.
10/04	Centaline Charity Fund Queen’s Hill School Head : Mr. Tany Chan Prayer Requests: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. As the school is located in a new housing estate, many students face family problems such as domestic violence, neglect, etc. Some students have emotional problems, like reluctant to go to school, often hiding at home, and not willing to contact the outside world. Some senior students even engage in acts of self-harm such as wrist-cutting. Please pray for these students. 2. The school's teaching staff needs to be more caring, stable, and professional in order to be able to continue to care for students in need effectively. With an excellent teaching team, the school can then be the salt and light of the community, helping families in need in the estate, so that children can receive high-quality education and grow happily in the primary school stage. Please pray for our teaching team.
